STARING

1602 Rouville Ave

Dear Dr Burling:

You may recall that I dropped in on you one afternoon in October 1971 to ask for any information which you might be able to give me on my Staring/Sterling ancestors. You discussed your own findings with me and suggested how I might go about discovering more information myself. At the time I promised to let you know if I turned up anything new.

So far I have had only one slight success - the discovery of a ~~Memorial~~ land transaction which starts out as follows:

"This Indenture made the twenty sixth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen* between Adam Staring late of the town and county of Herkimer in the State of New York, ~~now~~ now of Upper Canada of the First part and Nicholas A. Staring of the

* The date is unclear - it is written eighteen but the last part is either scratched out or blotted, perhaps accidentally, perhaps intentionally.

town & county of Herkimer & State of New York son of the said Adam "-----"

The transaction was registered on 11 March 1822 by "Adam Staring formerly Adam Staring Jun ----- who being duly sworn saith that he knew Adam Staring the within named grantor, that he saw the said grantor execute and deliver the within deed, at which time the deponent subscribed his name to the same as a witness".

This clearly shows that the Adam Staring and Nicholas A. Staring of the Ernestown records were father and son and seems to indicate that although Adam ^{had} moved to Canada, Nicholas had not. Sterling Kimball with whom I am collaborating has, I believe, already discussed with you his discovery of the probate records of Nicholas A. Staring's will. There name Isaac Staring of Ernestown U.C. as one of Nicholas A. Staring's sons. Thus the line is Adam → Nicholas A → Isaac.
Also, the land record, which I have quoted above and the probate records of the estate of Adam

Staring (Junior), d. 15 or 16 Aug 1835, show that Adam Jun. was a son of the Adam of Ennetown and Herkimer and a brother of Nicholas A. These sons of Adam Sr. were therefore Adam Jun, Nicholas A. and Timothy - probably in that order.

Stirling Kimball and I are indebted to you for having got us started on ~~the~~ right track in our searches. Our best clue for going even further than we now are would seem to be in following up your discovery of the birth record of Timothy Staring - where his parents are named as Joh: Adam Staring and Catharine. You mentioned that these were probably the Adam Staring and Catharina Mac Rinnis whose marriage is recorded at Stone Arabia 3 Jul. 1770. I wonder if the person who transcribed the records from Dominie Rosencranz's original book may have mistaken Mac Rinnin (feminine of Mac Rinn) for Mac Rinnis. If so this would add further support to your belief that Catharina was the daughter of Timothy Mac Rinn & Mac Rinnis) and Sarah Kast.

(The will of Lodowick Kast, ⁽¹⁷⁵³⁾ says "I give and bequeath to Hannah Maginin oldest daughter of Teady Magin by my sister Sarah - ") *

* Ref. Hubert W. Hess "The Staring Family"

(4)

Is "Teady Magin" really Timothy D. Magin?

Any further suggestions you might have would be most welcome. This ~~summer~~ summer I plan to try to trace some of the Kest land transactions to see if any end up with a Catherine - wife of Joh: Adam: Staring.

If I may now leave the Starrings and switch to my Asselstine ancestors - when I called on you 16 months ago I had barely started on this particular search. The line as I then knew it was:

I. S. Sterling ← W. E. Sterling ← A. I. Sterling

^m
Rhobell Ann Thompson ← John Thompson
^m
Mary Asselstine.

I now have my great grandmother Mary Asselstine Thompsons parents and grandparents - as follows from the death certificate of Mary Asselstine Thompson & of Peter Asselstine:

Mary Asselstine ← Peter Asselstine (^{woodworker} 28 Feb 1826 - 28 Apr 1910) ← Isaac Asselstine
Jane Youngs ~~(died 1877)~~
Mary Kellar
(married 20 March 1820)

According to Kathryn Asseletine's book Isaac Asseletine and Mary Keller were both of Fredericksburg and were married on 20 March 1820. She cites the Ontario Historical Society Papers & Records, Vol 1 1899, Pg 27 - Marriage Register, St John's Church Ernestown.

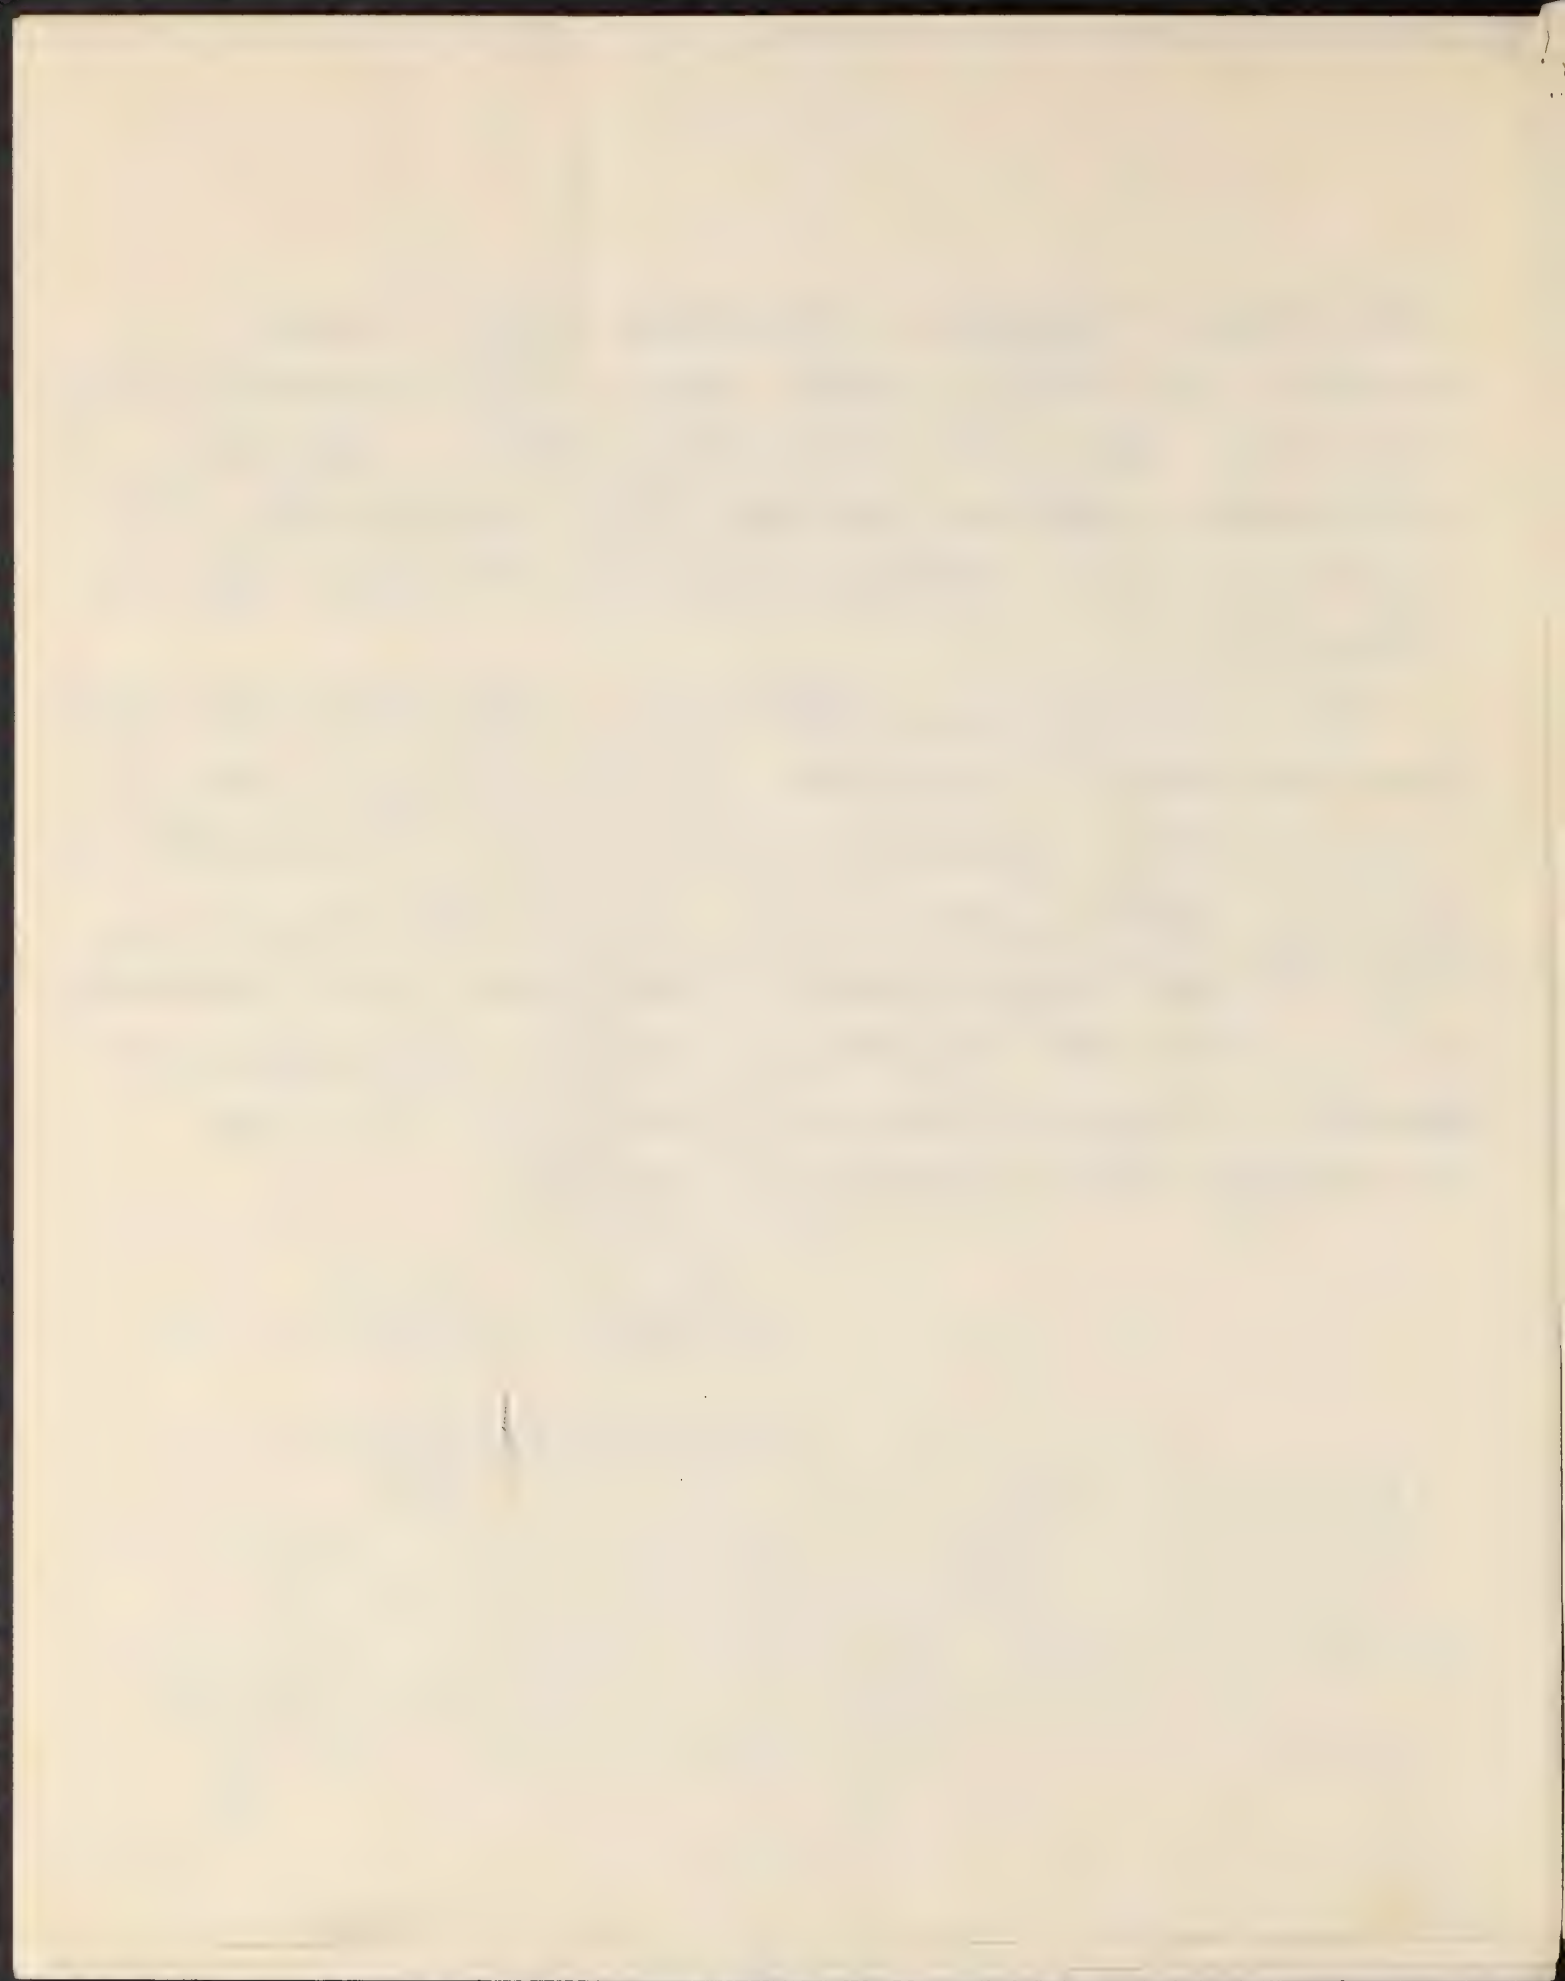

I would assume, ~~that~~ from the fact that this Isaac Asseletine was from Fredericksburg, that he was probably a grandson of Johannes (John) Asseletine U.E. However this is pure guess. I wonder if you are able to shed any light on this from your Asseletine file - I would be pleased to have any information ~~you~~ or suggestions you can give me for furthering this part of my searching.

Yours truly

T. S. Sterling

Dear Dr. Burling:

I was very pleased to read that you have published the Journal of Lt. Henry Simmons. I herewith attach my cheque for $2.50 for a copy of it.

I have also enclosed copies of "Ancestor Charts" which ^{I believe} add another 3 generations to the Staring ancestry - i.e. the parents and grandparents of the original immigrant Staring. I am not 100 per-cent certain of these, the names, place (Wonsheim) and general dates are correct but there is no record extant ~~which names~~ in Wonsheim or Wornheim (2 small villages near Alzey in the Rhineland Palatinate) of the births of the immigrants (Nicholas, Adam and Valentine). Evidently the Wonsheim parish records disappeared during World War II. However the records of Wornheim were not lost and these give the marriage of Nicholas, son of Frederick Staring, of Wonsheim to Anna Eliz. Barkey daughter of Georg and Anna Eliz. Barkey of Wornheim on 17 July 1656.

Another Wornheim record gives the baptism of Elizabeth Barkey Barcke, daughter of Georg and Anna Elizabeth Barcke on 26 December 1659. Godparent Elisabeth Huns, wife of Conrad Diefenbach.

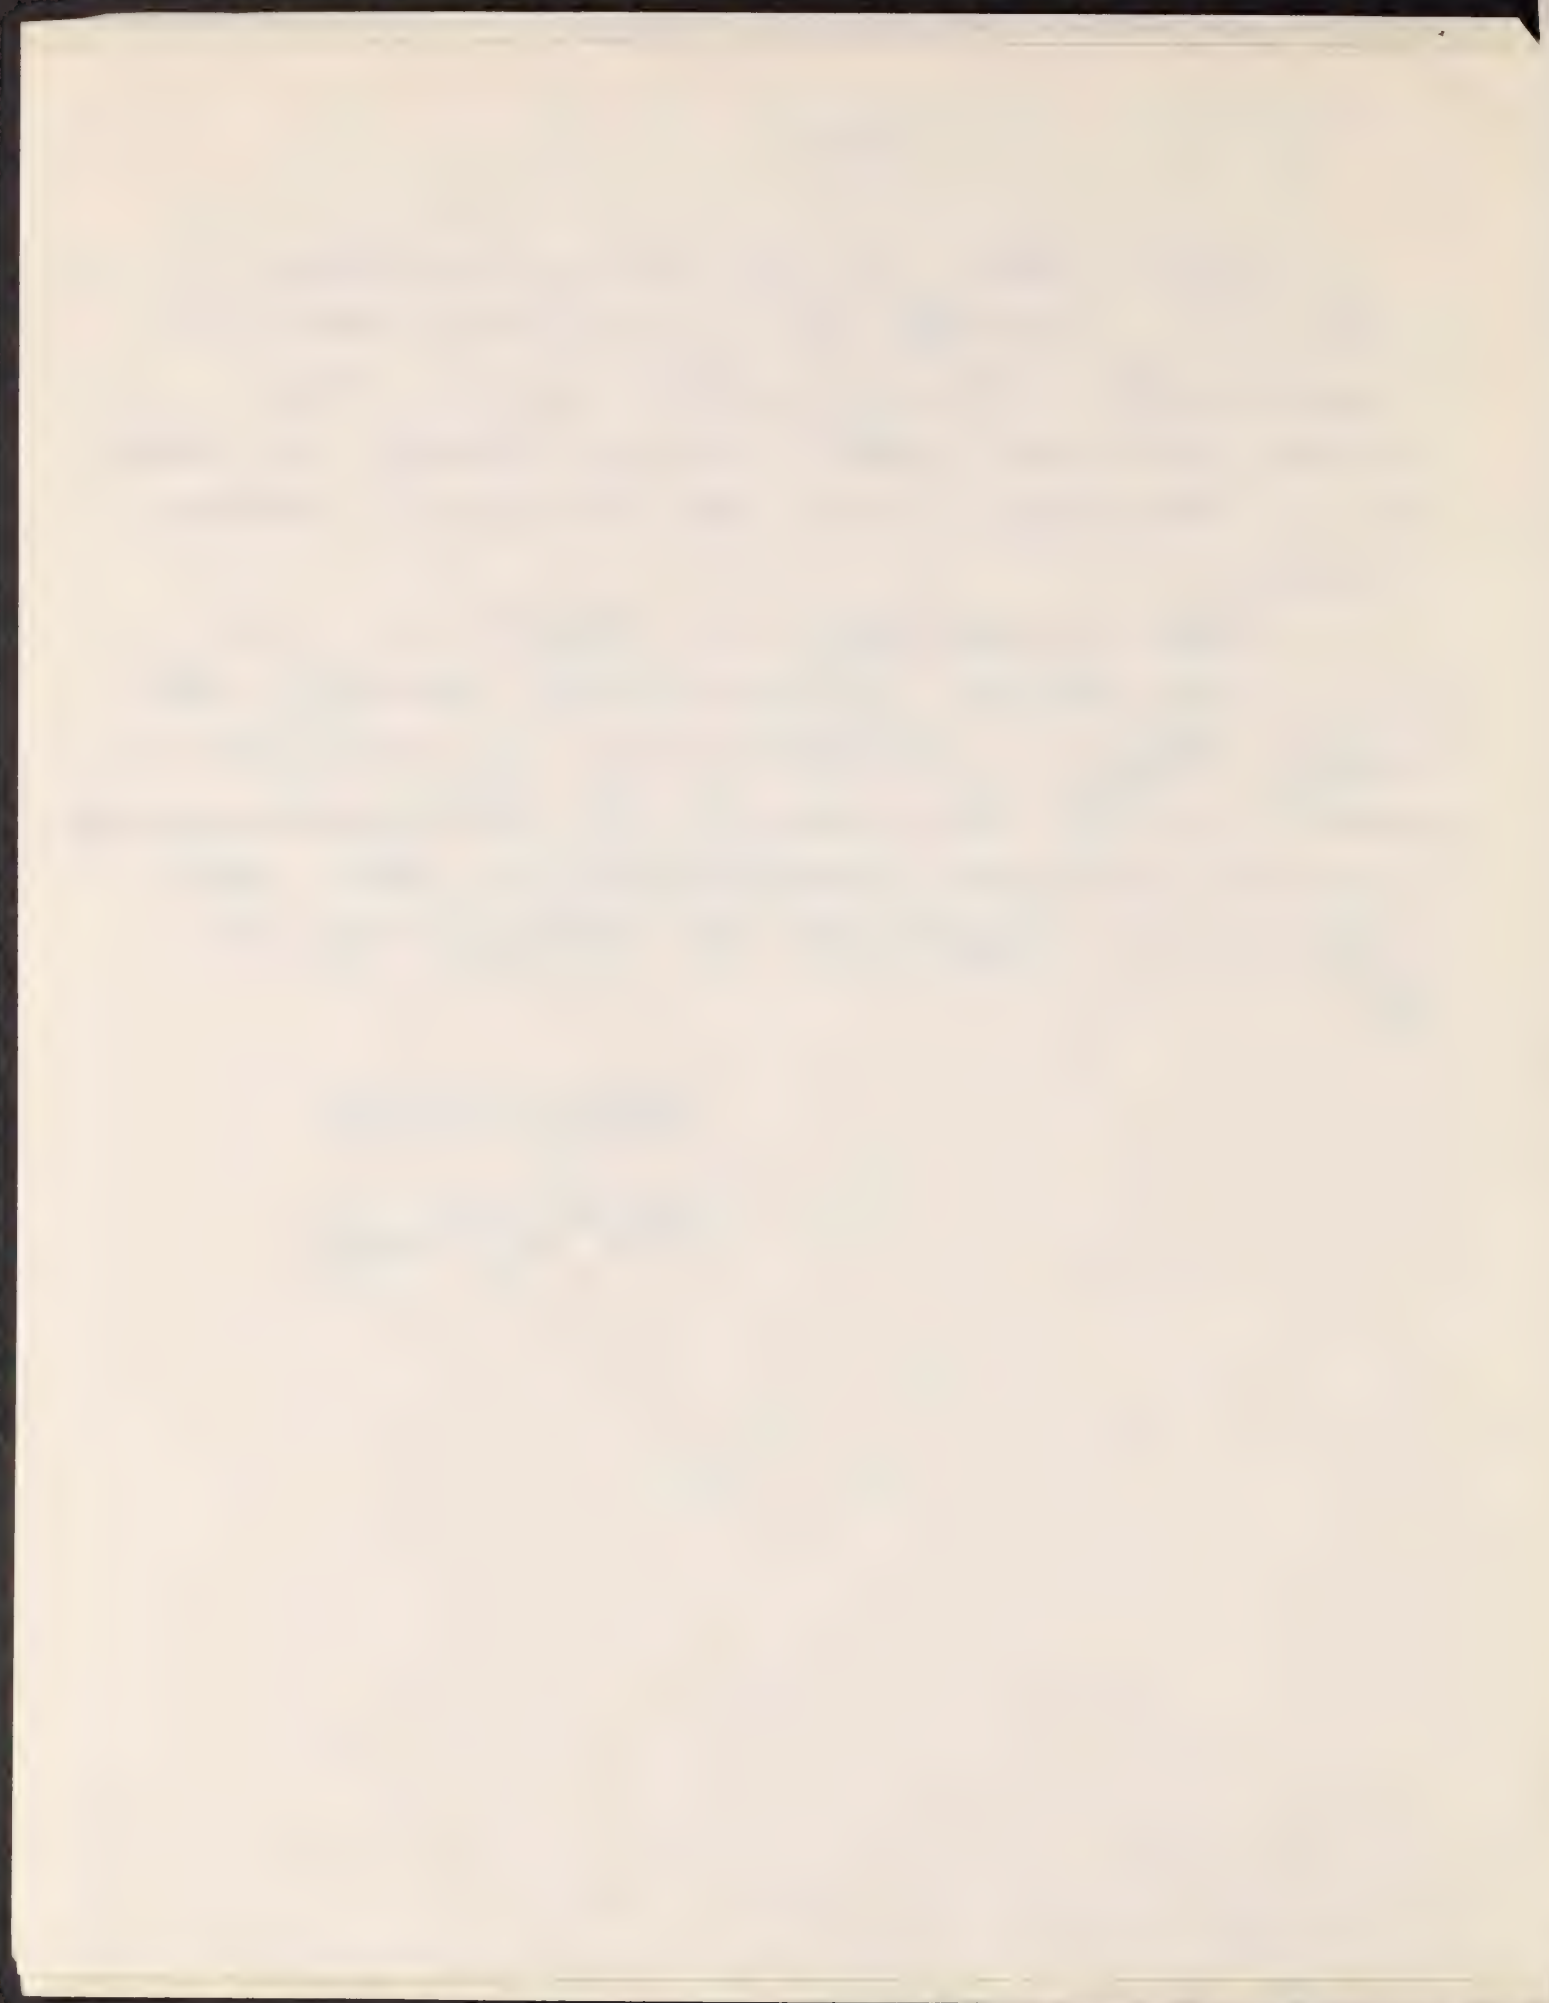

I hope these will be of interest to you. If they are, and you add the information to your files, you may wish to note that George Berkeley is listed as a "Commoner" and his occupation "tobacco-maker".

When I met you in Bath in 1972 you mentioned, if I remember correctly, that Teady Magin started out as an indentured clerk in the service of the Livingstone family. I wonder if you could let me have more details on or references to that part of her life.

Yours truly

D. A. Sterling
